Copies of “Own Choice” works for the Adjudicator

It is illegal to copy works which are copyright without the permission of the copyright holder. The Music Publishers’ Association Code of Practice on Photocopying only makes some allowances where volume of works are concerned. The relevant paragraph of the code is given below.

The Music Publishers Association Code of Practice on Photocopying copyright works makes the following concessions for copying own choice pieces from volumes only for the use of the adjudicator at the Festival provided that the entrant or participant has already purchased his/her own copy, and that the copy made is retained and destroyed by the Administrator of the Festival immediately after the event.

Copyright laws state that songs from shows in current productions may only be sung as a concert item ie. without costume or movement, without the need for copyright permission.

Permission to re-record from the commercially produced CD and tape requires permission from the publisher. The attention of competitors and group leaders is drawn to the booklet ‘Copying Music - A Code of Fair Practice’ which is obtainable free on application to the Music Publishers Association Ltd.

Official Accompanist

In some classes the services of the official accompanist is available to performers on the day of the competition free of charge. When submitting entry forms, performers should indicate clearly in the relevant column if they wish this service. Arrangements may be made for school performers to have a single short rehearsal prior to the competition. Alternatively, performers may bring their own accompanist.

Grades and Certificates

- 90+ OUTSTANDING
An exceptional performance both technically and artistically
- 87-89 DISTINCTION
An excellent performance both technically and artistically
- 84-86 COMMENDED
A convincing performance technically and artistically
- 81-83 MERIT

Trophies

Persons awarded trophies will be required to sign a letter undertaking to keep the trophy safe and to return it to the trophy convenor by 31 January the following year.

Festival Terms & Conditions

The Adjudicator's decision is final.

Mark Sheets - Competitors must collect mark sheets after each class.

It is the responsibility of the entrant to check the printed programme and notify the organisers of any changes by contacting strathfest@gmail.com

'Own Choice' Music - The committee reserves the right to refuse an entry of any spoken or sung material deemed unsuitable or offensive.

Photography, audio, video recording and mobile phones

Members of the audience are NOT PERMITTED to take any form of photograph nor to use a mobile phone/camera to make any type of video or audio recording at any festival event. Only an appointed official photographer will be permitted in the designated area by prior arrangement.

All competitors remain the responsibility for the schoolteacher, parent or guardian bringing them along to the competition.

Can you help?

Unfortunately the festival is not able to offer classes for Piping or Adults this year. However, if you can spare some time to help arrange these disciplines for a future event we would love to hear from you. Please contact us at strathfest@gmail.com
